

Published on Cloud Computing in the Public Sector (<http://cloud.holyrood.com>)

Home > What Happened in 2014

What Happened in 2014

Key issues addressed:

- The new Scottish Public Sector Cloud Usage Policy
- Procurement of cloud solutions
- G-Cloud and the Digital Marketplace
- Strategies and solutions to protect data in the cloud
- Legal implications of cloud computing
- The use of Cloud in local authorities
- Using the cloud to improve team collaboration and public consultations
- How wearable technologies are affecting our lives; and how cloud computing is making it all possible

Speakers:

- Tony Singleton OBE, Director of Digital Commercial Programme and G-Cloud Programme Director, Government Digital Service, Cabinet Office
- Julie Kane, Head of Digital Public Services Strategy Programme Office, Digital Public Services Division, The Scottish Government
- Stuart Chalmers, ICT Business Services Manager, Scottish Fire and Rescue Service
- Jeffrey Wood, Technical Business Relationship Manager, Information Services (Strategy Team), Essex County Council
- Jason Miles-Campbell, Service Manager, Jisc Legal
- Andy Hamilton, Chief Executive, CompanyNet
- Graeme Gordon, CEO, IFB
- John Allan, Field Systems Engineer, F5

Delegates

- Chief Information Architect
- CTO
- Head of Information Systems and Strategy
- Head of IT/ICT
- ICT Business Services Manager

- ICT Security Manager
- Information Manager
- Information Technology Manager
- Infrastructure Development Manager
- IT/ICT Manager
- Learning Technologist
- Principal Information Officer
- Technical & Support Services Manager
- Web Services Manager

Share this page:

[1] [1] [1] [1] [1] [1] [1]

Source URL: <http://cloud.holyrood.com/what-happened-2014>

Links

[1] <http://www.addthis.com/bookmark.php?v=300>